WASHINGTON.

BUCK BOYCOTT IS RESTRICTED.Stove Company Must Not Be Mentioned in List.*Decision Against Federation of Labor Affirmed.*Injunction Suit Decided Against Unions Again.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON. March 11.—The American Federation of Labor hereafter may freely refer to the boycott against the Buck Stove and Range Company of St. Louis except by inclusion in the "We Don't Patronize" list. This, in substance, of widespread importance to the labor world, to manufacturers and to the public generally, is the sweeping decision handed down today by the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia. In the noted injunction case of the Buck Stove and Range Company against the American Federation of Labor.

The court modified and affirmed the opinion of Justice Gould of the Supreme Court of the District, which held that the defendants were guilty of labor combinations and other conduct of "mentioning, writing or referring" to the business of the Buck Stove and Range Company or its customers. Otherwise, the decree is affirmed.

DECLARED ILLEGAL.

The court holds that the "combination" and "referring" to it, in the "We Don't Patronize" list, in aid of the boycott, is illegal.

The court held that the defendants could not be restrained from all publications referring to the business of the company, but only to such as are made in furtherance of an illegal boycott.

In a partial dissenting opinion Justice Shepard took a strong hand in vindicating the right of the press. He says that, even assuming the publication of the complainant's name in the "We Don't Patronize" column of the Federation was a step in the direction of monopoly, it coerced independent dealers into refusing to have further business relations with that company, yet:

"I cannot agree that the publication can be restrained for that reason. Regardless of its character, if the publication is protected from restraint, in my opinion, by the first amendment to the Constitution, which protects my law abridging the freedom of the press."

The chief justice held that "the only remedy for libelous or otherwise publication, wrongful and injurious publications, is civil action for damages and criminal prosecution." There is no power to restrain the publication.

DOSN'T SETTLE APPEAL.

The decision does not settle the appeal in the contempt proceedings in which Messrs. Gompers, Morrison and Mitchell were given jail sentences. This will be heard later by the appellate court.

The labor leaders claim, so it is said, that it is reasoning adopted by Chief Justice Wright, Justice Van Orsdel is followed in the decision of contempt proceedings they will be able to upset the findings of Justice Wright and prevent serving terms of imprisonment.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.Monitors' Names Changed.

WASHINGTON. March 11.—The Navy Department has changed the name of the monitors of the Pacific and that of the monitor Nevada to the Tonopah, in order to permit the following out of the custom of giving the names of States to oily battleships and armored cruisers.

December for Inauguration.

WASHINGTON. March 11.—The Presidential election early in October, and the inauguration ceremony early December, when the weather is usually good, is the proposal that Crumpacker of Indians will make. If March is abandoned for November, one day off of inauguration. Mr. Crumpacker would have a regular session of Congress beginning.

Hughes Successor Teller.

WASHINGTON. March 11.—Senator Hughes of Colorado will succeed his predecessor in the Senate, former Senator Teller, as a member of the joint Committee on the Revision of Laws.

Stop Fish Frauds.

WASHINGTON. March 11.—As many packers put up "humpback" and "dumbhead" under the laws and sell them to consumers, who believe them to be superior varieties, the Department of Agriculture today ordered that these fish, when labeled, shall bear their common names. The decision also says that the fish commonly known as "lake herring" and "cisco" should be called, and not designated "white fish."

Indians will have but one chairmanship of the Census, but it will have only two Republican members.

New Jersey, with seven members, will probably not have chairmanship in the House, but the delegation from New Hampshire, which has been chairman for several years, and such will doubtless continue to be the case through the Sixty-first Congress.

Representatives Sullivan, chairman of the Pension Committee, and Mr. Currier is head of the Committee on Public Lands.

Illinois is considered sure of five chairmanships, mostly of minor importance; Pennsylvania of five; New York three or four; Kansas, three; Missouri, two.

The reason assigned for the unequal geographical distribution of chairmanships is that the practice of retaining a delegation to one committee after another varies greatly with the different States. Priority is an important factor in the selection for chairmanships, and the falling off of some states in the number of delegations due to their failure to reelect old members.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Mr. Taft Begins Work on Tariff Commission Which Will Be Brief.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON. March 11.—President Taft began work today on his message, which is to go to the extra session of Congress on Tuesday next, according to the present plan. It is understood the message will deal only with the tariff revision and the general subject of revenue raising. President Taft has indicated that he will ask Congress to confine its labors at the extra session exclusively to this subject. The message will not go into details regarding specific schedules.

It will be brief and will lay great stress on the necessity for prompt action.

Andrew Carnegie was a caller at the White House today, coming, he said, to pay his respects to President Taft.

"I wish to thank you for your administration, and I think we will be well served by your continued support," said Carnegie.

Gen. H. G. Holt, minister-general of the Commonwealth military forces of Australia, also paid his respects to the President.

BALLINGER AT WORK.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON. March 11.—In his policy to reorganize the work of the Interior Department, Secretary Ballinger today made a number of changes in the personnel. These include the appointment of Clement S. Usher of Ohio, chief of the contest branch, and James L. Parker of the general land office to be chief clerk of the department in succession to Edward M. Dawson of Maryland, who was appointed as assistant attorney-general.

John Holcombe and James L. Parker, both of Indiana, were appointed assistants to the secretary.

Harold N. Clarke of New York was selected as electrical engineer in the geological survey at $2000 a year.

PRairie Dog Must Go.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

WASHINGTON. March 11.—Poison which is to be used in killing the prairie dog, the stock market enemy, that now infests Arizona and New Mexico and has become a menace to the forest ranges there.

On ranch lands prairie dogs have proved destructive to a variety of crops, especially wheat, grain, cotton and sugar beets, while on grazing lands they destroy so much grass that the grazing capacity of the land is reduced 50 to 75 per cent. The forest service is making every effort to prevent range deterioration. Last spring a successful campaign was made against the prairie dog and this year it will be waged on a larger scale.

HOUSE INSURGENTS FEW.

OLD RULES WILL PREVAIL.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WASHINGTON. March 11.—Representative Watson of Indiana, who has been a leader in the movement, but only to such as are made in furtherance of an illegal boycott.

In a partial dissenting opinion Justice Shepard took a strong hand in vindicating the right of the press. He says that, even assuming the publication of the complainant's name in the "We Don't Patronize" column of the Federation was a step in the direction of monopoly, it coerced independent dealers into refusing to have further business relations with that company, yet:

MURKIN REPORT

OK, J. March 11.—The police force have been unable in getting any information as to the murderers of St. Catherine's Cathedral yesterday, making nine men and two women to be taken into custody so far as far as they can get a felonious charge, because conviction along those lines would prove much consideration.

He, however, believes that a well-organized gang with financial backing, working throughout the country, was really manipulated by the mob.

MONROVIA (W. Va.) March 11.—Dr. Charles McCracken of Cameron, W. McCracken shot and seriously wounded his wife, and a second bullet killed the child.

SOX PAN HITT
VERY EASILY.Heaver Trimmed With Passes and Two-Horse Swats.Nick Altrock Scares Perhaps Men Effectively.Good Fielding Keeps Locals from Scoring.

Chicago Yannigans 6; Vermonts 6.
Hitt didn't make his meter-day out at the Chutes ground and this is good both going and coming for, his time came to swipe at the ball he could not knock it out of the infield. He lost his own game in the first inning, although the Perhaps batted out almost twice as many times as the conventional fielding, stabbed all of Hogan's chances to the heart.

The Yannigans ate everything that came their way, evidently trying to make up for any easy beating given them on the previous day. Weday round the Perhaps of a run in the ninth, which was the last chance in left field. Purcell faded as he had expected the Sox to be handed the American League pennant if they won, and all the other Sox did the best they could.

Davis put young Nick Altrock in to finish off the game on the blink with the first ball pitched. Nick was himself again and he proceeded to score the liver, lights and lungs out of the visitors by trying to see how far he could throw his hands behind his back without actually knocking them out. He stayed through four innings so he could take a couple of hours off, but when he quit the Perhaps were weak from fear. This made it all very easy for Lange to complete the sweep. The Perhaps had to make their swallows, it is true, but little difference how they cracked wings.

STARTS WITH HITT.

Hogan and Hitt were sing them over in the first part of the game and in the first two innings he scored them about in an awful manner. He started by passing the first two men and then made a wild throw to second base which advanced both men a base. He then hit a home run to right field, the next one, but the fourth batter tapped the ball to left field, scoring the first two. In the second inning he struck out two and then doubled from a foul tip in the fourth inning, which will keep him out of the game for at least a month.

The game was very interesting and closely contested by both teams, there being few errors and hits made during the ten innings. Pitcher Buckles let the Poly boys down with two hits, but the visitors secured three hits off the Poly pitcher.

The High School boys put up a high grade of baseball, and will make a hard fight for the County League championship if the Perhaps can't make their swallows.

Now comes the class of hell they exhibited against the Saints yesterday afternoon.

The team lined up as follows:

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Judge Houser declared yesterday that he did not believe in trying to blacken a prisoner's character with his former police record, even if he had such.

Gavin McNab, of San Francisco, testified to him that he was short in his account with the Continental Building and Loan Association.

A committee of Los Angeles bankers consented to look into assets of the Consolidated Bank of Los Angeles to see if they are of such a character as to warrant them in advancing $47,500 to pay the depositors.

Judge Wilbur announced that hereafter all crimes under 22 years of age will be committed to the Juvenile Court, under the new law.

AT THE CITY HALL.

INSPECTOR OF PUBLIC WORKS.

HUMPHREYS TAKES UP STREETS AND GARBAGE JOB.

Chosen at Meeting of Board of Public Works Yesterday to Handle Karr's Work—Contracts Awarded for Improvements in Northwest and Boyle Heights.

At yesterday's meeting of the Board of Public Works, Gen. Chaffee having returned from his trip to the scene of operations along the Los Angeles aqueduct, William W. Humphreys was officially appointed Superintendent of Public Works, to succeed Edward Karr, resigned. Mr. Humphreys is regarded as an authority on efficient street improvement, and he begins his duties with the entire confidence of the public, inspired by his well-known public spirit and his excellent services on the Board of Park Commissioners.

By the letting of several contracts for street improvements yesterday, the northwest section of the city received needed attention. Westlake avenue will be graded, curbed and sidewalked from Court to Temple; Commonwealth avenue from Third to Boyle heights; and the paving of the streets and alleys in six blocks west of Crown Hill was referred to the City Engineer. The contract was also awarded for the improvement of Palmside Street. Trustee, State Ganahl, in the Boyle Heights district.

FORMER DEEDS DO NOT COUNT.

JUDGE HOUSER SPRINGS BOMB ON DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

Refuses to Go Back of Charge of Grand Jury for Which Prisoner is Convicted and "Calls Down" the Prosecution — Custom in Many Courts.

For the first time in a dozen years, Department No. 3 of the Superior Court yesterday tried a criminal case and it was a success. The court sat by laying down the law to the District Attorney and other judges of the Superior Court, who have entertained a certain line of argument in the disposition of such matters.

The opportunity arose when a jury had found Henry Chavers, colored guilty of grand larceny in robbing a counter of the Gaspar Valentino, of No. 1614 Stanton Avenue. The jury convicted the boy only after a long session, four of the members voting for acquittal, but a compromise of guilty was reached with a reconvened jury.

All formalities of delay were waived by the attorney for the defense, and the court asked the defendant, District Attorney Ford if he had anything to say before sentence was passed.

"If the court please, the defendant has a police record," he said.

"But he got no further." The court evidently did not agree with the District Attorney's office in its method of procedure for Judge Houser sharply rebuked Mr. Ford and said:

"I want to hear no more of that. It has come to be too much the method of the District Attorney's office and certain courts to lay down the law to the jury without being called out at such times as these. I want to hear nothing about the prisoner's former record. It will not go with me. I will not stand for it. I will not stand for it until Monday morning for settlement."

And that was the end of the argument.

BANKERS TAKE CHARGE.

CARLSON SAYS, NEVER AGAIN.

The affairs of the Consolidated Bank of Los Angeles are now in the hands of a committee of Los Angeles bankers, consisting of Maurice S. Hellman, vice-president of the Security Savings Bank; J. E. Fishburn, president of the National Bank of California, and W. H. Holliday, president of the Merchant National Bank.

This disposition of the long contentious question was reached yesterday in the Juvenile Court, and it came upon the court to make up the report made by these men to the court just what will be done with the bank. A stipulation was signed by all the members of the committee that the trustee does not think it good business to judgment to advance $47,500 needed to repay the depositors in the bank, on which the trusteeship of the committee was suspended and the matter turned over to Capt. A. C. Dodds, probate officer, for investigation.

It was discovered after the arrangement was made that if after the examination of the assets of the bank it was found that the depositors would only receive their money after a long time, the committee of bankers will have nothing to do with the bank further, and in that event a receiver will be named by the court. It must be possible to make a quick turn of the bank's accounts, so that the committee can take hold of the matter at all. If conditions altered by W. H. Carlson exist the depositors will get their money immediately.

When Mary Shubian, the mother of the lad, was asked to qualify as to the boy's age, she fell on her knees in front of the court, and with tears streaming down her face, stated in Russian that her son was allowed to go. She afterward told the interpreter that the man who had been accused of the crime, was to take the place of the parents to the new Russian colony being organized in Lower California, and added that he would be allowed to go.

When Edward Trejo, the son of the lad, was asked to qualify as to the boy's age, he fell on his knees in front of the court, and with tears streaming down his face, stated in Russian that her son was allowed to go.

Michael Gustin, who pleaded guilty to robbery, went to Whittier to serve his sentence, but he has reached legal age. The boy is 19 years old, and his commitment was under the provisions of the new law.

J. F. Bartori, president of the Security Savings Bank, represented the local bankers in the court proceedings, and one of the members of his selection was one of the board of trustees, but as Mr. Bartori is about to make an extended trip to Europe he would not be available to the court. The report of the committee will be made to the court two weeks from yesterday, and in the meantime the examination of the German assets will begin.

Carlson, who is one of the two business men of his selection he added to the list of bankers, and he named Warren Wilson as one of his selections, but Judge James would not allow this, as in his opinion bankers were in a better position to know most of the value of many of the Carlson bonds.

There was a hot controversy between Carlson and Hank Commissioner W. S. Vawter, Carlson asserting that Vawter was incompetent to act as a member of the Bank Commissioners. The ex-banker claimed the commissioners were veritable czars. Mr. Vawter denied that he had been appointed to his present position on the recommendation of the bankers of Los Angeles.

SUIT FOR BONDS.

WATER AND COLONY DEAL.

The narrative of a colonization and water deal is given in a petition filed in the Superior Court yesterday. The plaintiffs are M. A. Teare and E. B. Sweet, who purchased the interest of the Columbia Colonization Company, a Chicago corporation, and the defendants are L. E. Maston, president of the Mojave Water and Power Company.

It is claimed that on October 12, 1900, the two plaintiffs entered into a contract with Wilbur, transferring to him lands, rights of way, franchises and water rights together with certain bonds valued at $200,000. The lands are located in San Joaquin county. It is also alleged that the Mojave Water and Power Company authorized an issue of stock of $100,000, and that the bondholders will be entitled to receive payment of the amount of the bonds to the plaintiffs as payment for the property transferred.

The power is for judgment against the Mojave Water and Power Company, and compelling them to issue 2-3 shares of the preferred, and 4-5 of the common stock of the corporation.

GAVIN McNAB TESTIFIES.

SAYS TICHENER CONFERRED.

There was a flood of testimony yesterday in the hearing of the case against George N. Tichener, former agent of the Continental Building and Loan Association, charged with embezzlement.

E. E. Moss, who reported the testimony at the preliminary examination of Tichener, said the accused declared he had been induced to leave the company and San Francisco. There was no entry of the $1000, but the $70 was put into the cash register.

Mr. E. E. Barnett, of Fort Edward, N. Y., who was employed in a real estate office that had the collection of the rents of the deceased for several years, witnessed the codicil.

On July 24, 1906, she witnessed the first codicil that gave Mrs. E. Z. Barnett $10,000, on December 11, 1906, $5000 to Mrs. Livingston and $2000 to Lola A. Swilling, all three ardent spiritualists.

When Mr. Smith called to have the first codicil witnessed, Mrs. Myers said she asked the deceased why he had rented $70 to the company, saying that he had returned the first time because he was preparing to get money that had been due him for a long time, and had been on the job for about three years.

Mary Hause, a number of depositors with the association, testified in regard to various amounts which they claimed they had paid to Tichener, and these appear on the books of the company.

Gavin McNab, of San Francisco, director and attorney for the company, said that in 1905 he had used his good credit with the company to obtain a $1000 loan for Tichener, and later the prisoner had asked for another loan, saying that he had returned the first time because he was preparing to get money that had been due him for a long time, and had been on the job for about three years.

Continuing, the witness testified that he said to him: "This is the only crime I have ever committed. You can take me to jail for it. You can send me to the penitentiary. If you people will let me give my note to the corporation I will work it out some time. I will never again be around here." Tichener, he said, had called upon him at his office in San Francisco, and witness said he stated to him that he had taken several thousand dollars from the association's money and spent it on the spiritual land.

Editorial Department Points

Col. Roosevelt's jungle experiences will not be complete if he fails to have himself hugged by his son's constrictor.

The Standard Oil Company is adjudged not to have been a robber. Neither is it trying to elect a Mayor in Los Angeles.

And now California raisins are to be boosted. It is one of the mysteries of the times that California raisins are not profitable.

The trouble with the woman's suffrage movement in this country, is that society women have hoodooed it by taking it up as a fad.

It would really be a kindness on the part of Col. Roosevelt to take the Kaiser along on that hunting trip. The Kaiser needs a bracing up.

We congratulate the President on his election to the "Bill Club." But, as far as that goes, he was made a "Bill" on sight a long time ago.

There is one Democrat to seven Republicans in Taft's Cabinet, which is about the proportion that exists throughout the country at large.

We should think that the manufacture of lime-light ought to be a very profitable business. Every body seems to want all they can get of it.

We notice that white girls are marrying negroes and Japanese, right along. What's that Kipling said about "the gypsy lad for the gypsy lass?"

The argument that probably appeals the strongest to Mr. Jeffries is that the championship of the world ought to be brought back to Los Angeles.

It is announced that the white woman whom Jack Johnson married is now his manager. So if he whisks Jeffries the white race will claim the credit.

Ethel Barrymore announces that she will remain on the stage after her marriage. She expects, evidently, to love her husband well enough to support him.

Now is the chance of a lifetime for the bandit people to bust the lion trust of the jungle by informing a certain great hunter of existing conditions.

Judging from the news in the papers, there is an epidemic of divorces in the United States. This breaking away all the time is a sad business, to say the least.

The government in France ought to raise a great deal of money from an income tax, for the reason that almost everybody in France appears to have an income.

The dispatches speak of a Chicago man who has just married "his first and only love." Pretty slow chap, we should say, never to have had but one sweetheart.

It seems that the East has never had a more disagreeable spring than this is proving to be, unless it may be the one they had last year or the year before that.

There's one thing that Jeffries can't do, anyway, and that's to make Johnson turn pale. The negro is so black that a piece of charcoal would make a white mark on him.

It is something of a distinction for an American girl, who is plain Miss White, to be able to change her name to Sherr-Thoss. No name is really aristocratic unless it is hyphenated.

Now the styles are to be changed so that "women's waist lines will be near the knees." How it is to be done is a mystery to us, but we suppose it is perfectly plain to a woman.

It has been definitely ascertained that the recent Arkansas tornado was not Senator Jeff Davis, who has been considerably tamed down since that fellow in Little Rock hit him on the nose.

The announcement heralding the "Middle Age" goes says that it is a garment that can be worn only by women with long "limbs." What's that mean? Well, everybody figures in order to succeed, but there is no excuse for the "four-flusher."

The world is fairly crowded with what the gamblers call "four-flushers." And it's a pity. Every man must do more or less bluffing in order to succeed, but there is no excuse for the "four-flusher."

Take a man who owns a good orange grove and spends his life amid its perfume under the blue skies of California. He has wealth, health and happiness. God is very good to that kind of a man.

No, dearly beloved, Los Angeles is not a bad town. It is not the sink of hell. But it is, instead, a great, brave city, fair with good women, strong with brave men and happy with the music of children's laughter.

From the moment Col. Roosevelt boards the ship until he returns from Africa his every movement will occupy the front pages of all the newspapers of the world. He is destined to remain the most conspicuous of living men for many years to come.

The civilized world will rejoice that there is no truth in the rumor of King Edward's death. He is in shape to celebrate the coming St. Patrick's Day with his Irish subjects, who like him better than they have ever liked a British sovereign, although that isn't saying much.

"It is a wonder that the whole world is not crowding into Southern California," declares a fascinated tourist. Well, everybody is figuring to do it, but it takes more or less time for a man to pull up stakes that have been frozen into the ground for hundreds of years.

THE COLLAPSE OF HARPER.

Arthur C. Harper, former Mayor of Los Angeles, is a broken reed.

It were well to have mercy on him, although he has had no mercy on himself or on his friends.

No man in local political life ever had more done for him or greater sacrifices made in his behalf. No man more cruelly disappointed and humiliated his supporters. None ever went out of office more disgracefully. It is perhaps not necessary to say more; and one could not say less.

The Times would not set down aught in malice. It does not need to wash its hands of Harper. Its hands are clean. It washed them when Harper was nominated for Mayor. It opposed his election with all its might. On November 11, 1906, The Times said of Harper's candidacy:

"There is a preponderating weight of influences around him which certainly is not intelligent or of high mind. How far he would be able to resist the influences of this rabble it is difficult to see?"

On the day following the election of Harper, The Times, greatly regretting the result, said this:

"We are to have a Royal Arch Mayor and corporation Mayor and a 'wide-open town.' Three months ago The Times pointed out what would happen if there was not a getting together."

Again and again through this recall campaign, while opposing the recall and the recallers with all its force, The Times has declared that it could not support Harper, could not approve of his methods or his policies and was only interested in seeing that he got fair play. But Harper, it seems, was incapable of treating either himself or his supporters with fairness. He certainly knew how vulnerable he was; and the most regrettable feature of the whole affair is his failure to protect those who were giving their time, their money, their energy and their loyalty to his support. The Times presumed that his friends will be lenient to the crushed and fallen man; but what can be more distressing to him today than the reflection that he misled them so long and so bitterly? He should have withdrawn from the battle before it began.

But he bared himself to the storm and it came relentlessly to overwhelm him. He has acknowledged his offenses and has undeviated those who trusted in him. In so far as the world has to offer, it is all over for Harper. May heaven find some way to save him—for the everlasting arms are stretched out for such as he!

Now what to do? There can be no doubt that the first thing is to provide the city with a legally-elected Mayor; and it apparently is the programme of the City Council to elect a Mayor today or as soon as the requirements of the law may be complied with. And then? Has the recall election been vitiated by Harper's resignation? How can an election be held to recall a Mayor who has quit his office? Who is to be recalled if a recall election is held? Harper has recalled himself. Who else can be recalled? If George A. Smith be elected Mayor, as is contemplated, the recall certainly cannot be switched against him. But how can the election that has been ordered be stopped? These are all problems new and strange in American life and American law—and come from the adoption of a mischievous device foreign to our American constitution. The lawyers are divided in opinion. Some think the recall has been vacated by the Mayor's withdrawal; others hold that the people must go through the process of voting.

There seems to be a way open for the placing of a regular Republican nominee on the ticket in case the recall election be carried out. The court has held that a legally made nomination by a legally held convention of a party with standing before the law may be placed upon the ticket if presented within due time. Is there time enough?

That is another question about which legal minds differ. It seems probable that the ticket, may be amended, if an election is now held. At any rate, it would be possible for voters to write a name on the ticket.

Once more The Times calls upon Republicans to unite and to refrain from wandering into the brush. The Times re-echoes its old campaign cry of the fall of 1906, bidding the Republicans "get together" and nominate and elect a tried and true Republican of standing, of honor, of firmness and independence, to the office of Mayor—a man whom no shame can fall, one who is free from the taint of recalcitrance, free from the poison of A.P.-ism, free from the sinister influence of the little clique of would-be bosses who have been trying for years to get their clutches on the City Hall. At the very outset of this campaign The Times repeatedly exhorted the Republicans of Los Angeles to put up a straight Republican candidate to run against both Harper and the recallers. Its distrust of Harper was freely expressed. It declared that the only safe course to pursue was to make a regular Republican nomination. But the advice of The Times was not heeded and it accepted the situation. It was harshly overruled in 1906 when it besought Republicans to stay in the middle of the road, when it protested against the election of Harper—but how much better would be the situation in the city today if its advice in each instance had been heeded?

Judging from expressions that poured into The Times office last evening, the business men of Los Angeles are an intensely antagonistic to the recall device and the recall clique as ever—and the sentiment of the local Republican party sets very strong that way. The recall, as it stands in our charter, is a perpetual menace to civic serenity and progress.

It is a spring of scheming, bitterness and dirty politics. An imported and un-American device, unknown to the founders of our government and ignored in our American constitution, it is subversive of the principle of majority rule and destructive of the public peace and welfare. It is an unnecessary evil. Mayor Harper could have been pried out of office without it. The very fate of Harper shows how thoroughly our institutions provide for such emergencies without resorting to this un-American contrivance. It was not through any process of the recall that Mr. Clotworthy of the Record forced Harper to resign and the city was spared the shame of the continuance in office of such an executive. The city will have no permanent peace, no freedom from the damaging wiles of designing men, until the devilish recall is voted out of the city charter.

Not a wrong surviving this day if this set can the wrongs of the day. The moon enters the tropical feminine sign and exerts a quiet influence. Mercury is in the fiery sign, in square, with the planet Jupiter in the square, with courageous heart and a desire to undertake existing opportunity. The merchants, bankers and buyers in the city should push the advantages of the time.

The time remains highly favorable for health. A good evening recreation from anxieties and trouble will find the period passed, however, not to let the time that thou canst bide.

With this birth must be born under the sharp influence of the time.

The young will meet with the prodigality to which they are inclined nor with mean parsimony.

BLOCKED BY LANDSLIDE.

Three Hundred Feet of Coast Line Track Buried Under Earth and Boulders.

SAN LUIS OBISPO, March 11.—Through traffic between San Francisco and Los Angeles on the Southern Pacific coast line was blocked today by a landslide near Drama station, just north of Port Dickinson.

Three hundred feet of track was buried under boulders and earth. A work train and a gang of men were sent from here.

The task of clearing the line was found to be so great that the construction of a "wedge" track around the obstruction was commenced.

It is expected the temporary track will be completed before morning, when the delayed passenger trains will move.

LAWYERS CHARGED WITH COMPOUNDING A FELONY.

Court Bitterly Arraigns Attorneys Who End Case by Securing Marriage of Defendant and the Fifteen-Year-Old Complaining Witness. Counsel Resists Remarks of Judge.

SANTA BARBARA, March 11.—Accusing Asst. Dist. Atty. Day, and Attorney John J. Squier, for the defense of compounding a felony by settling the case of rape against Louis Carl Schwarz, otherwise "Fred the Kid," by getting him married to the complainant witness, Judge Crow, in the Superior Court here yesterday, threatened to ask the grand jury to investigate the matter.

"The law holds that compounding a felony is a crime," declared Judge Crow. "That is, hindering in any way the ends of justice. I shall call the attention of the grand jury to this matter and shall ask for a thorough investigation."

In this remarkable situation, the prosecuting witness and the defendant sitting side by side in this courtroom while the trial is pending. It is a situation, I dare say, that has scarcely ever confronted a judge in any court.

Attorneys charged with compounding a felony are held responsible to the county hundreds of dollars and the taxpayers are compelled to pay for it. It is a shame, and I hope a similar situation will never occur in this courtroom again."

THE WATER MEN.

Campaign Committee of Defendant in Action to Defend Expenses.

MARCH 11.—Alleging expenses last fall to further campaign of James A. E. Adams, the unsuccessful Prohibition candidate for the State Assembly, his children began to file a complaint against the members of the Prohibition Committee to collect dues.

For the collection of $15,000, the publishing expenses, the printing, publishing hand bills, cards and money advertising to carry on the campaign, the committee made defendants L. W. Irvine, W. F. Wright, and others.

APPEARANCE.

Adams, whose real name and occupation were not known until late last night when he took affidavits for the defense of compounding a felony, was remanded to the county jail.

Adams' lawyer, Mr. C. D. French, said he had nothing to fear, he had no friends in the state and to the RENTS REMARKS.

"I am willing to let the grand jury tell them what I know about this case or any other which I have been connected. I asked for the dismissal of this case simply because the girl refused to testify against the defendant, and I relied mainly upon her testimony to convict the defendant."

Attorney Squier denied any taint of conspiracy. He said that while attorney for the defendant, he had acted from "feeling of humanity" for the complainant witness, as well as for the girl, who had already been chosen.

The court ordered the dismissal, but only after adjourning the arraignment of the opposing lawyers.

The latter declined to swallow the statement of the court. "I consider Judge Crow's remarks," said Asst. Dist. Atty. Day, "are absurd, while he was warranted in attacking an officer of the court. If he thinks that I have been guilty, or that any one connected with the District Attorney's office has been guilty, of compounding a felony, I demand that he prove it."

AFTER THE GRIPPE.

Vinol Restored This Man's Strength

"Several years ago I was attacked by a severe case of grippe, which left me with a hacking cough, soreness in my chest, and bronchitis. I took nearly every kind of cough syrup available, but none of them relieved me. The physician prescribed Vinol, and he said that it would do me good. The first time I used it I was cured. I have since had several attacks of grippe, but Vinol has always relieved me. I have had no trouble since using Vinol."

BIBLE CLASS RALLY LARGE.

Personal Work Is Theme of First Sessions.

International Superintendent Leading Speaker.

Prize Banners Awarded for Class Exhibits.

Spirit and enthusiasm characterized the sessions of the Adult Bible Class Rally and Conference under the auspices of the Southern California Sunday-school Association that opened at the First Methodist Episcopal Church yesterday. It is the first conference of its kind held in this section, and the lively interest shown was manifested by the large attendance at the day and night meetings, and the banquet which intervened.

W. C. Pierce of Chicago, international adult department superintendent, in filling the place on the program, which had been allotted to John C. Casman of Denver, former secretary of the Colorado Sunday-school Association, and he is contributing much to the success of the conference. His marked originality lends charm and interest to everything he has to say.

Prof. H. P. Stout leads the song service, and in his efforts in drawing in a solo or leading the audience as the men whistle and the women hum the tune of a good old Methodist hymn.

AWARD OF BANNERS.

An interesting feature is the exhibits made by classes from the various Sunday-schools, for which three prize banners were awarded. Barac class of the Third Presbyterian Church was given the banner for the display of evangelizing matter and devices used in Sunday-school work, and honorable mention was given the Plymouth Pilgrims for their work.

For the best decorative exhibit the J.O.C. class of the First Methodist Episcopal Church was awarded a banner, and the First class of the East Side Christian Church received special mention. The third banner went to the Haven Philistines class of Haven Methodist Episcopal Church, for the best work done.

A special mention was given to the We Boys and J.O.C. classes of the First Methodist Episcopal Church.

The award of the banner was announced at the service last night, presided over by W. E. McVay of Los Angeles, and at which the principal speakers were Dr. W. C. Harper, President of the Superintendence, Dr. H. P. Stout, Superintendent Pearce, Dr. H. P. Stout, speaking on "The Personal Touch in Soul Saving," said he hoped the day would come when every church member would be required to take a pledge to devote all his time possible to winning souls.

He declared there is something wrong in the methods used by the church today because the harvest is so small in comparison to the great expenditure of money and effort. He said that if we wanted to succeed if each Methodists would win one soul every month the world could be evangelized in eight years; likewise the Baptist could evangelize it in nine and the Congregationalists in ten years.

PERSONAL WORK IN CLASSES.

Mr. Pearce made a plea for personal work in the Sunday-school. He urged every leader and member to keep a prospective list of persons to be won. "Once a member, always a member," he recommended as the motto for every class. He advised that membership should also be made worth while by helping members in times of misfortune and sickness and related incidents of his personal experience along this line.

"We could not consistently take any action that would offend Shenk.
